

BRITAIN'S HAND STAYED

"DO NOT SURRENDER TO ENGLAND," PLEADS KNOWLAND

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Springing to his feet today during the debate on the Panama canal tolls exemption, Congressman Joseph R. Knowland assailed the repeal in unmeasured terms.

"The United States would be surrendering to Great Britain without a struggle if we allowed the President to have his way," he declared. "Is the Panama canal now the price of the elimination of Huerta? Disguise the situation or becloud the issue as you may, there is no escaping from the naked truth that for the first time the people of this great nation are urged to surrender under foreign pressure. I entertain a high regard for the President of the United States. His patriotism and honesty of purpose I would not attempt to question. However, like all members of the human family, he is apt to err. In this instance an apparent error in judgment in the Mexican situation has necessitated the latest move, at least his message so hints. The most charitable thing to say is that he has been imposed upon."

General Herrera Makes Obdurate Defense in City Streets

BULLETIN.
JUAREZ, Mexico, March 28. 1 p. m. Heavy fighting continued in Torreon today, according to a telegram just received from General Villa. Villa added that he expected to have the city by tonight. He gave no details.

JUAREZ, March 28.—It was with the expectation that Torreon would crumble under the rebel attack today that officials here resumed their tasks this morning. The last reports yesterday were that General Monclovia Herrera had cut his way from the eastern side of the city through the business section to the bullring on the north; that General Villa had set out with more troops from Gomez Palacio to join him and take supreme command, and that the federals were making a final stand in their defenses on the west side.

An unconfirmed rumor at mid-night had it that the rebels had taken the hill known as Cerro de La Cruz, an important defense, but verification was still lacking early today. Latest advices from both Villa and newspaper correspondents indicated that the rebels had carried their assault into the very heart of Torreon.

Militiamen Shoot Robinson's Assailant

TRINIDAD, Colo., March 28.—James Johnson, a negro, is reported to have been shot today by a detail of militiamen engaged in a search for assailants of Clinton Robinson, marshal at Hastings, who was shot and seriously wounded early today while attempting to quell a disturbance at the camp. Johnson is said to have been with a party of six and reports are conflicting as to whether they were strikers or miners. The military authorities first reported that Robinson was shot by strikers who were picketing the camp.

DISEASED BRAINS MAY SAVE HUBBYS FROM PRISON CELLS

CHICAGO, March 28.—On the theory that they may have diseased brains and require mental treatment as a substitute for punishment Chicago husbands who don't support their wives hereafter may be sent to a laboratory instead of to jail. Those arrested on other charges may receive similar treatment. Chicago's psychopathic laboratory, the first of its kind in the United States, will be established in the near future as an auxiliary to the municipal court, it was announced today. By making a scientific examination of delinquents the judges hope to be able to deal with them in a manner to produce best results when cases come to trial.

DAYAL MAY BE FREED BY U. S.

Hindu Lecturer Has a Chance to Escape Prosecution

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Immigrations today from sources of authority in connection with the charge of being an undesirable alien against Har Dayal, the noted Hindu liberal lecturer and leader, are to the effect that the charges against him will be dropped by the immigration authorities. Har Dayal's possession of papers showing the exact date of his arrival in this country are standing him in good stead. They fix the date at February 11, 1911, before the three-year period which is the statute of limitations in the immigration act. What method will be taken in letting Har Dayal go is not yet known. He is at present freed on bonds furnished by friends in this city, and it is expected these bonds will be returned.

Believing that his interests were best subserved in his capacity as a private citizen, Har Dayal did not approach the immigration authorities accompanied by an attorney. He was examined but briefly at Angel island by the latter and released as soon as his bonds had been arranged. He is at present awaiting further action of the commissioners, but believes this action will be in his favor.

THE LAW INACTIVE
It is understood that the immigration law is inactive, so far as the deportation of an undesirable alien is concerned, after three years from his admission to this country. The warrant for the arrest of Har Dayal.

CITIES ARE IN SERIOUS DANGER

Lowlands Are Already Covered by Water at Tonawandas

Culvert on Erie River Near Utica Washed Away

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 28.—Towns in Western New York are threatened with a repetition of the disastrous floods of a year ago. In the low lands of the Tonawandas people are going to and from their homes in boats owing to the effect of the Tonawanda and Ellicott creeks. At Batavia the municipal sewage disposal plant is eight feet under water. A culvert on the Erie railroad near Utica was washed away last night, causing the dispatch of trains over the New York Central tracks. At Corning the Chemung river is ten feet above normal and has flooded the western part of the town. The Allegheny river was over its banks and the southern portions of the Allegheny valley are under water. At Albany, N. Y., the Hudson river is rising rapidly and dwellers along the river front are moving to safety. At Columbus, Ohio, the great Miami and White Water rivers are raging, the Scioto is climbing a foot an hour and the Musking and Licking rivers are out of their banks along the lowlands. Anxiety was felt during last night for a recurrence of the disastrous floods of last March. Damage so far reported has been confined to the southwestern section of the state.

R. D. JONES NAMED

Oakland Attorney Slated for Appointment as Civil Service Commissioner.

Roscoe D. Jones, a young Oakland attorney, is slated for appointment as civil service commissioner to succeed the late L. N. Cobbley. The appointment will be announced by Mayor Mott next week and will be confirmed by a vote of the city council. Jones was chosen after conferences with Mayor Mott and Civil Service Commissioners Harrison S. Robinson and Benjamin Pendleton.

Jones has been a practicing attorney in Oakland since 1906. He has offices in the Security Bank building. He came into public notice recently in connection with a controversy in the Presbyterian church of this city, in which he took a prominent part.

The appointment of Commissioner Cobbley, who died a few weeks ago, was made in August last year, for a term of six years. The appointment of Jones will be for Cobbley's unexpired term.

The civil service board, handling as it does the affairs of all city departments and continuing as it does before the city of the city, is considered one of the most powerful bodies in the life of the city. The term to be served by Jones will extend beyond that of either Robinson or Pendleton, unless they are reappointed. Jones is a family man, living at 545 Mina Vista avenue.

CABINET IN MIX-UP

Resignations of Field Marshal and Adjutant-General Form Problem.

LONDON, March 28.—No solution had been found up to a late hour today of the situation caused by the resignations of Field Marshal Sir John French and Adjutant-General Sir John Dewart from their positions at the head of the British army. The cabinet, however, was still hopeful that its difficulties would be overcome before it again meets the House of Commons on Monday. Should the chief of the general staff and the adjutant general to the forces persist in their attitude it is generally thought that Colonel John Seely, secretary of state for war, will leave the cabinet.

In case the government should be able to placate the two masnias and the adjutant general, the transfer of Colonel Seely to some other field of activity probably will satisfy the Liberal and Labor minorities.

In the meantime the opposition of the army to employment in the coercion of Ulster is vouched for by no less authority than Sir Edward Russell, a staunch supporter of the government, who in a signed article in the Liverpool Post says today:

"It is a positive fact that when he left the war office early this week Field Marshal Lord Roberts used in his pocket a list of nearly 400 officers of the army who are ready to send in their papers."

The members of the cabinet separated today for the week-end and most of them have gone on visits to various parts of the country.

COOPER CONFESSES

Chief Petersen Receives Summary of Crimes Accused Committed.

"Sir" Harry Westwood Cooper, alias Dr. Milton Abraham, has been engaged while in prison at Durban, Natal, South Africa in writing an autobiography in which he tells of his career of crime, detailing offenses committed by him in New South Wales, Australia, United States, Canada, England and South Africa. Chief of Police Petersen, who is planning to have Cooper brought back to Oakland to stand trial on three felony charges, received a summary of Cooper's confessions yesterday, the summary being contained in four long typewritten pages giving the dates of the crimes, the offenses and the list of Cooper's victims.

Among these are contained four bigamist marriages, five elopements, which did not end in marriage, four (Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

W. W. Westover Brings Action on Bonds Against United Properties Company.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—William W. Westover, a capitalist of 1629 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda, brought suit in the Superior Court here today against the United Properties Company and the directors thereof including F. M. Smith, W. S. Tevis and R. C. Hanford, to recover $75,000, and accrued interest. The money is also to satisfy $75,000 worth of bond certificates held by Westover, which he claims he has endeavored to exchange with the company for bonds but without success.

Attorney Walter F. Linforth, representing Westover, declared that he was prepared to bring a number of similar suits.

"We are seeking to recover the $75,000 from the United Properties Company and also from the individual stockholders. Mr. Westover has not received any interest for more than a year and has been unable to get his bonds. He is holding certificates which seem to have been in a flood over the country." Westover purchased the certificates in July, 1912, and each of them bore the promise of redemption in bonds of the company which in turn were to be secured by a deed of

Besides the $75,000 asked for from the United Properties Company, Smith is sued for $25,000, Tevis for $25,000 and Hanford for $75,000, these amounts representing their interest in the concern and their liability under the claim made by Westover.

LEADER IN DEFENSE OF PEOPLE

Stands Vigorously by Anti-Reversal Hosts in Nation's Fight

Gives Impassionate Address to Congress on Issue

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28.—Debate on the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption continued today in the House and Senate. The House was proceeding on the Sims bill under twenty hours' debate, as provided in the hard-fought battle of yesterday. The Senate was debating the subject generally.

In the House Representative Joseph R. Knowland, controlling the time for the Republicans, assailed the repeal in unmeasured terms as "surrendering to Great Britain without a struggle."

"Is the Panama canal now the price of the elimination of Huerta?" he demanded.

In the Senate resolutions by Senator Leads and Senator Gallinger were laid aside until Monday. Leads' resolution was supplementary to one now pending, declaring for equal tolls and would empower the President to suspend tolls in his discretion.

Administration supporters are confident the repeal bill will pass the House by Tuesday night or early Wednesday.

Yesterday's victory for the administration in the House has aroused expectations of champions of repeal in the Senate that a favorable report will be forthcoming from the canal committee notwithstanding the influence of its chairman, Senator O'Gorman.

RAIN IS PREDICTED

Unexpected Storm Appears Off Vancouver Island and Hits California.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—An unexpected storm appearing off Vancouver island and moving toward crept unawares upon California at an early hour this morning and set aside the weather predictions of Father Richard, of Santa Clara and the United States weather bureau.

Rain has been general over the entire state, falling heaviest in Southern California and treating the bay cities to scarcely more than a trace. For the next twenty-four hours, however, unless all predictions fail, there should be a general downpour hereabouts.

Rain and snow are falling practically all over the United States. The temperature has risen over the plains from Fort Laramie to Eureka by reason of brisk high southeast winds. The rain has been heaviest at Pomona where 32 are recorded. San Diego received .10, Los Angeles .24, and San Francisco .02.

IN GRAND OPERA

Loses $60,000 for Season in San Francisco; Not Coming Again.

Manager Ulrich of the Chicago Grand Opera Company says that the organization lost $60,000 during the two weeks' season in San Francisco and they will not return.

"Ruffo's sickness was a setback," he admitted, "but the demand for seats for 'Rigoletto' was so great that we had to give it a second week. But we should have had more than that."

"But you would have made it up at succeeding performances," it was suggested. "We might have done it," said the manager. "But the fact remains that the whole season was a failure. There was a large audience to hear 'Rigoletto' on Sunday, though by no means so large as we have had elsewhere, and you saw how the attendance shrunk when the work was repeated on Thursday. Apart from 'Rigoletto' the only other work which has had any respectable measure is 'Ruslan' with Mary Garden."

DENIES HARSH CRITICISM.

"People suggest that you are giving six-dollar opera with three-dollar principles," it is objected. "That is not true," said the manager. "We bring Garden and Ruffo. How many more artists of this caliber do you think the Metropolitan opera company has, or the Boston opera company? Haven't we brought you Julia Calvé, the finest contralto in the country? Didn't Maudie Salzman-Stevens sing Sunday? Haven't we got Duvernois, Huberdeau and Poles, with 'Carolina White' and a whole galaxy of stars of the younger generation?"

LOOK AT CHORUS.

"Then there are the chorus and the orchestra, and look at the mise en scene. It may be that the well-to-do have been hard hit by business troubles and the misfortunes of the city. But it is a poor showing for a city like San Francisco to have only one subscriber for a box for the whole season. However, I am not complaining. I am only trying to make it clear that, with such patronage, we cannot afford to come again."

CAMPBELL
BLAMES BANKER

Fugitive Declares He Is Returning to 'Clean Up' His Friends

Gives Version of Accusation; Says He Will Recover Bonds

PORTLAND, Ore., March 28.—Leaving behind the statement that he was going back "to clean up some of my friends," and blaming President A. W. Naylor of the First National Bank of Berkeley for his present troubles, Walter Greer Campbell is on his way to San Francisco to face a warrant charging abandonment and neglect of his wife.

Campbell, who is worth $100,000 of bonds which he deposited as security for a $200,000 loan with the First National Bank of Berkeley that I am being hounded," he declared. "The time of the payment of the debt came recently and I went to Walla Walla to raise money to release my bonds. I was unable to gather it at once and President Naylor of the bank, hearing of my activities, dug up an old draft and caused Kellogg to swear out a warrant upon its having been refused. I don't know why it was refused, for I have ample credit, but I do know that Naylor is back of it all and the stake of his game is those bonds, which are deposited in his safe. "As for my wife, I am sorry about that, but there is nothing wrong there. She and I were divorced long ago, but through the fact that she was my wife I have given her occasional money—not because she could force me to give it, but because she was once my wife."

NO ACTION BY BANK.

BERKELEY, March 28.—That no charges against Walter Greer Campbell, the famous millionaire operator, who is now in difficulty with the law, has emanated from the First National Bank of Berkeley was declared this morning by F. C. Mortimer, cashier of the bank. Mortimer declares that the charges were filed by a San Francisco hotelkeeper, who believed he had been defrauded by Campbell.

A draft in favor of a San Francisco hotel, declares Mortimer, "was drawn by Campbell on this bank. When presented here for payment it was returned marked 'no funds,' as Campbell had no money on deposit here against which the draft could be debited. The hotel meanwhile had itself recognized the draft, whether with accommodations or actual coin I do not know, and so found itself out of pocket the amount thereof. The innkeeper immediately, as I understand the matter, brought the draft to the attention of the police department of San Francisco."

"The police there have meanwhile several other papers issued by Campbell, which were not covered by funds on deposit and the present action against him ensued. Campbell's assertion that this bank has taken action against him as the result of bonds he had deposited here as security is equally false. This bank, it is true, made a loan to Campbell on bonds which he had deposited with us for a small amount. Campbell is indebted to me, and I may add, to other Berkeley banks in a similar way, but this bank has not foreclosed on him as the result of its loan. In fact, no action at all against him has emanated from this bank or from A. W. Naylor, its president."

COUNSEL OPTIMISTIC.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Walter Greer Campbell is hurrying to San Francisco today to fight the charge of abandonment and neglect preferred yesterday by Mrs. Susan Barth Campbell, who claims to be still his wife.

Attorney Algernon Crofton, counsel for Campbell, asserted today that he believed the preliminary examination would end in a ruling about a dismissal of the case. Crofton this morning wrote a letter to the Hotel Sutter explaining that he had yesterday tendered the $250 in satisfaction of Campbell's rejected draft and that Auditor Kellogg had refused to accept it. He ordered that he still stood ready to make good the amount at any time demand was made upon him.

Campbell will arrive here tonight and will surrender himself immediately, bonds being furnished by Crofton and other friends. It is probable that he will have preliminary examination in the police court on Monday morning.

He left Portland yesterday after friends there had put up $2500 bail in his behalf.

VARIOUS BURGLARIES REPORTED TO POLICE

A burglar who had broken into the home of Charles Peckham, 273 East Eleventh street, was observed last night while at work looting the place, by the return of Mr. and Mrs. Peckham, who had been out calling. The man had entered through the rear window and made his escape by running to the rear of the house and leaving from the window into the garden. He stole a purse containing $40, and jewelry valued at about $60.

Joseph McIntosh of the Hotel St. Mark reported to the police that his pocket was picked last night while he was in a saloon at Seventh and Washington streets. A gold watch and a purse containing $20 were taken.

R. M. Campbell, 1530 Grove street, reported that his rooms were entered by a burglar, who used a pass key and stole jewelry valued at $50.

WATER DISTRICT ELECTION QUESTION TO BE DECIDED

Delegates to Settle Matter of Asking Supervisors for Vote on Issue

Next Friday night, at the Commercial Club headquarters, final decision will probably be made by the Water Supply Committee, composed of delegates from the different commercial and civic organizations of Oakland, as to whether the board of supervisors will be asked at once to call the proposed Municipal Water District election, or whether this will be delayed, pending investigation of present state water district laws. This was tacitly agreed last night when, with Dr. George C. Coburn in the chair, the committee discussed the project at length.

Many of the delegates, mostly members of important clubs in outlying sections, urged delay, objecting to the present law. Others, many of them members of downtown organizations, urged that the election be called at once, the district formed, be thrashed out afterward. The discussion lasted some time and no vote was taken.

"I hope every delegate will look into the matter carefully and come prepared to vote Friday night," said Chairman Pardee. "We want action one way or the other. If we are to start anything."

Former Senator Frank Leavitt was one of the first speakers, urging action at once in forming the district. He had been elected to the board of supervisors in which the latter declared that eight of the directors appointed by mayors of cities concerned under the present state law, could control the board, as seven would be a majority, and that there is no law to prevent these being outsiders, or to prevent them imposing taxes by resolution. "Any tax imposed," said Beyer, "would be mandatory on supervisors and city officials to collect. We might be in danger from that source."

SEES NO CAUSE FOR WORRY.

"If you people think that the people will elect the wrong men and the mayors will appoint the wrong men," said Leavitt, "if you think you will have a bunch of robbers for water district directors, you'd better delay action, but if you think you will get fairly decent men—and I do, for mayors usually take good care to please the people—you can go ahead. I don't see any cause to worry at all about it. If you don't think you'll get honest men for directors we might as well quit."

"What guarantee have we," asked Dr. Minora Kibbe, "that if we wanted a water district law changed after we've voted a district, the Legislature would do it?"

"You can rest assured on that point," said Leavitt. "Oakland is not the only city interested. San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, and many other cities and districts are concerned. While the Legislature might not give us all Oakland might want, we can be assured that it will frame a fair law for all parts of the state, and all will get a square deal. I believe there's no cause for worry on that point."

NEED HARMONY.

W. E. Gibson spoke at length urging harmony in the deliberations of the committee, that action might be concrete.

"We want to do something before we say 'let us decide, agree, and then work as a unit. We are dealing with a big problem; the biggest, perhaps, that we ever faced, and it needs concerted and harmonious action.'"

Harry Rogers, representing the State Railroad Commission, declared that he saw no cause for worry at the present time, and that the so-called water famine was not imminent. He outlined the present Oakland and bay region water system, and spoke briefly of all water projects under consideration. Greene Majors also, spoke on the general matter of water supply, and he, E. L. Vander Nalzen, J.

VILLA STORMS AT GATES OF TORREON

Federals Reported to Be Hard Pressed by Rebel Army.

and that the Federals were hard pressed. At that time it was General Herrera's force of 4000 men who were reported to have entered the town from the east, and the counter-march of General Villa into Torreon from the north was expected to throw the Federals under General Refugio Velasco into utter rout.

FIERCEST OF BATTLES.

No military official in Juarez to-day doubts that the battle which General Villa has waged against Gomez Palacio, now his, and Torreon, has been the most terrible of any engagement of this or any other revolutionary movement in Mexico. General Villa went to the front with 12,000 seasoned men well equipped for a vigorous, smashing assault against any resistance the Federals might offer. News dispatches indicate that the Federals fought fiercely and that the loss in dead and wounded to both sides was enormous. Lack of hospital facilities, the heat of the desert wind and the four days' strenuous, practically constant fighting under the virile and tenacious leadership of "Pancho" Villa were believed to have amassed a horrible casualty list.

VILLA IS A HERO.

Villa himself has become a hero. Everywhere in Juarez his praises were being sung today. By Maderistas and Constitutionalists he is looked upon as the greatest military genius of the southern republic, and great confidence is expressed that he will push his triumphant way with his rebel army to the very doors of the national palace in Mexico City.

With "vivas" for Villa and "vivas" for Carranza, the supreme chief of the revolution, rebel sympathizers gathered about the streets of Juarez today to welcome Carranza, when he ended his long overland march from Nogales to this city, en route to Chihuahua. And none could tell whether "viva Villa" or "viva Carranza" was shouted with more fervor.

HERBERT REBER GUNS.

LIVERPOOL, March 28.—John Wesley de Kay, of New York, formerly president of the Mexican National Banking Company, sailed for New York after negotiating in Europe in behalf of Provisional President Huerta for 240,000 guns and 10,000,000 rounds of ammunition. "Reports of guns and powder are to be dispatched to Mexico within a week from France," said de Kay.

FACTIONS FIGHT HARD FOR AIMS

Knowland urged the House, if it repeated the exemption, to declare that it had not surrendered the contention that the United States might make one.

Representative Madden, Republican of Illinois, spoke for the repeal. He said he saw no reason for the people of the Central West contributing to this tariff.

Representative O'Shaughnessy, Democrat of Rhode Island, spoke for the exemption, declaring the platform pledge of the Baltimore convention for free passage should be supported.

HARRISON SPEAKS.

Representative Harrison, Democrat of Missouri, was one of the early speakers when the debate was resumed. Although admitting his anxiety to follow the President and comply with his wishes, Harrison said he could not reconcile his conscience to the President's view and surrender to Great Britain a principle of national honor and integrity. "I prefer to vote my convictions, follow the platform of my party and stand up for the integrity and honor of my government," he said.

"Free tolls will aid the farmers and manufacturers of the Mississippi valley to ship their products down the Mississippi, through the canal and to the Pacific coast at cheaper rates than now," he said. "It would probably open up another market on the Pacific coast, where there are natural manufacturing advantages for the cotton of the farmers of Mississippi and other southern states."

Before opening his argument on the toll issue in the Senate, Senator Leavitt designed to vitalize the resolution he introduced several days ago promulgating the American policy of treating all nations alike with respect to the Panama canal. The bill would authorize the President to suspend tolls on ships passing through the canal "whenever in his opinion public safety shall so require or whenever he shall deem it expedient and consistent with the interests of the United States or with the best welfare of the citizens of the republic."

COLBURN CIVIL SERVICE OFFICIAL

Appointed Secretary to Succeed W. S. Cox, Who Resigned.

Frank Colburn, who has been assistant secretary of the civil service board since it was created under the new charter, has been appointed secretary at a salary of $200 a month to succeed William S. Cox. Cox has been suffering from ill health for some months and resigned from the secretaryship on this account.

Colburn has been an employee of the city for some years, having been a deputy in the city clerk's department, a clerk in the board of works under the old charter and having held several other responsible positions. During Cox's illness he was for some time acting secretary of the civil service board and has had from time to time a large part of the work and responsibility upon his shoulders.

Colburn has developed, according to experts in civil service, into one of the cleverest and most efficient civil service examiners on the Pacific coast. He has framed the questions for examination to various positions, ranging from firemen and patrolmen to positions requiring special training, such as purchasing agent and engineer, and has prepared examinations which have been used as models in other cities. He has come to be a recognized expert in his line.

Says Death Threat Compelled Bigamy

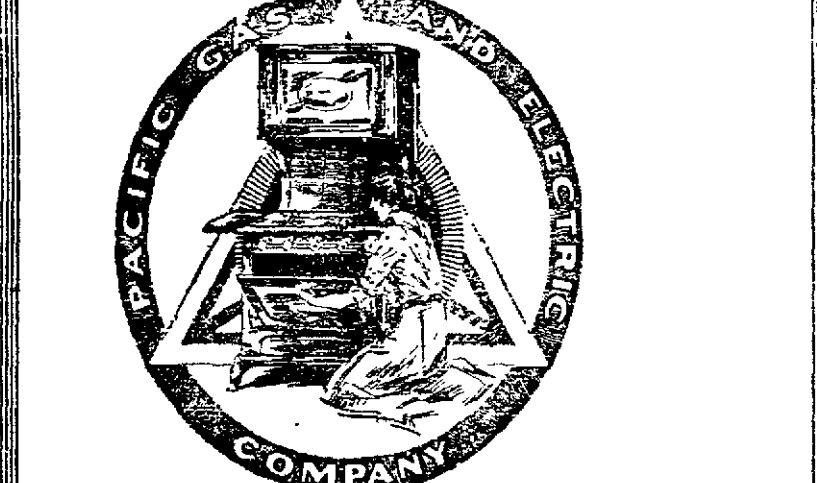

That she had been forced into a bigamous marriage through fear of being killed is the complaint of Mrs. Clara Bullock-Hill who commenced suit for annulment of her "pretended" wedding ceremony with James G. Hill which took place in Seattle last Monday.

The strange and near tragic story related by Mrs. Bullock in her complaint is to the effect that she had obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from Henry B. Bullock of this city and then gone to Seattle where Hill pressed his attentions upon her. Last Monday she says he visited her at the home of William Jones, 2305 Washington street, Seattle, and told her that he would kill her unless she married him.

I told him that I was not divorced from my first husband," Mrs. Bullock complains. "But he insisted and we went before Justice of the Peace Humphrey and the ceremony was performed. I was in fear of my life at the time. Within two hours after the pretended ceremony I left for Oakland and commenced proceedings to have the wedding annulled."

"Pape's" Diapensin Settles Sour, Gassy Stomachs in Five Minutes—Time It!

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one. Your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapensin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain, unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach troubles has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large bottle from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's

ROUSING RALLY FOR KNOWLAND

Club Organized and Vigorous Senatorial Campaign Is Planned.

With Congressman Joseph R. Knowland at Washington fighting against the repeal of free canal tolls for coastwise vessels, nearly a hundred of his friends rallied in the interest of his campaign for United States Senator, at Fraternal hall last evening.

Joseph R. Knowland, Republican, Club No. 1, was organized, and plans were discussed for the formation of similar clubs in each assembly district in Alameda county.

Enthusiastic speeches touching upon Congressman Knowland's vigorous canal toll fight, pledging him the strongest support in his campaign, and means of carrying on the senatorial campaign in this county, were made by several well known citizens.

Judge A. F. St. Sure, Clinton G. Dodge, and others in their talks referred to the fact that Congressman Knowland has remained at the post of duty in Washington, regardless of the commotion of his campaign here, and declared that his friends were ready and eager to start the canvass in his absence.

SEND MESSAGE.

A cheering message was telegraphed to the Congressman, telling him of the organization of the first Knowland club in the county for the coming contest, and of the plans for organizing clubs in every assembly district in his home county.

Others who spoke and who made suggestions for forwarding the campaign for Knowland were: Thomas H. Perkins and George A. Van Smith. The latter appeared in the interest of the Young Men's Republican club of the state, and it was decided that the Knowland clubs would send delegates to the convention of Young Republicans at San Diego April 1.

It was decided that the clubs here, on next Monday, had been made that another meeting of the club would be held next week, on a night yet to be chosen, when representatives of all the county's assembly districts are to be present, and organization throughout the territory provided for.

The meeting is to be held by Clinton G. Dodge, who was elected president of the club last night after the meeting had been called to order by Judge St. Sure.

Judge St. Sure is a member of the Republican state central committee from the thirty-seventh assembly district.

The speech shown last night indicated that the clubs to be organized in Alameda county will do effective work in behalf of Congressman Knowland, and that his campaign will be well supported throughout the canal tolls battle field at Washington.

'Banker Kiefer Gets Intermediate Sentence

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., March 28.—An intermediate penitentiary sentence, the maximum of which is seven years, was given Adam Kiefer, veteran Hazelton, Ia., banker, in District Court yesterday by Judge C. W. Mullan. Kiefer was indicted on 31 counts, charged with passing money in false pretenses. He was sentenced to the Fort Madison penitentiary.

MRS. GRANT IS DEFIANT MAY FILE COUNTER SUIT

Refuses to Talk of Plans But Dame Rumor Spreads Them

I shall always treat you with respect as long as you never come nearer me than you are at this moment.

I have not been laughed at nor sneered at since I last saw you. I am no more to you than any of the other women you have thrown over.

Try to live without scandal on your father's account.—Extract from letter written to Jesse Grant by his wife.

GOLDFIELD, March 28.—That Elizabeth Chapman Grant, wife of Jesse Root Grant, who was denied a divorce here yesterday, will file a counter suit for separation, was rumored here today. Mrs. Grant refused to discuss her plans. Neither would she say anything on Grant's failure to obtain a decree yesterday on a charge of wilful desertion.

Judge Somers denied the application of Grant, who is the youngest son of the late President Ulysses S. Grant. Suit was filed here several months ago by Grant, who has lived here at the leading hotel for about a year past. In his testimony, the husband sought to show that Mrs. Grant had wilfully deserted him after a married life extending over thirty-four years.

The complaint states that the defendant, Elizabeth Chapman Grant, on September 21, 1880, and Grant testified on the stand that he saw his wife last night for the first time since January, 1909. Grant recited at length the history of his married life and declared that his failure and unhappiness were due to no fault of his.

RELATIVES IN COURT.

With Mrs. Grant in the courtroom were her daughter, Mrs. W. P. Cronan of Washington, D. C.; her son, Chapman Grant, a lieutenant in the United States army stationed at Eagle Pass, Texas; her aunt, Mrs. J. N. Chapman of San Francisco, and Judge George Puterbaugh, an old family friend and a Superior Court judge of San Diego county.

The taking testimony occupied nearly the entire day and Grant testified that he receives an annuity of $5000, but has no other regular income.

Grant stated that his daughter, Mrs. Cronan, is 32 years old and their son, Chapman, 27. Through his attorney and with the consent of the court, Grant introduced in evidence a letter in support of his charge of desertion. The letter was written from San Diego, March 5, 1910, by Mrs. Grant to her husband, who was then in New York, and is as follows:

"Dear Jesse: In reply to yours of February 27, I am in San Diego, but not at my own house, in our own house. I cannot afford to run such a house. The rental pays our taxes and part of our living expenses. I am looking forward to the next month, I shall always treat you with respect as long as you never come nearer me than you are at this moment. I have not been laughed at nor sneered at since I last saw you."

MISERY ALLEGED.

"The world is much more beautiful to me since I have been divorced. I shall always treat you with respect as long as you never come nearer me than you are at this moment. I have not been laughed at nor sneered at since I last saw you."

"I have lived for the greater part of the last twenty-eight years. Through all the years we had a home in San Diego you spent the greater part in New York and my mother-in-law alone. She had come to live with me in an apartment with two tiny bedrooms. When Mrs. Mason returns my mother will go to her, and I shall go last night. Four years ago, when I went to New York, I was told that I was not to be there, but did not choose to take advantage of it. As I wrote you in my last letter, I have come to weep and now have contentedly, without fear of crying or weeping. I am no more to you than any of the other women you have thrown over, so just please drop the subject and try to live without scandal on your father's account."

Yours respectfully, ELIZABETH.

LEGISLATURE DOES NOT FINISH WORK

New York Solons Adjourn, to Return in Extraordinary Session.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 28.—The New York legislature adjourned sine die after today's session.

There being unfinished business that will require its return in extraordinary session of the Senate and House disagreed over an appropriation bill, which involved about $21,000,000. As amended by the Senate the total was $17,000 less than when approved by the House.

The Assembly's objections were based on an alleged juggling of the items. Assemblymen said the Senate cut out $500,000 for hospital and other necessary departments to get money for carrying on two departments which the Assembly wished to abolish the state fire marshal's bureau and the department of conveyance and economy. It also was contended that some of the alterations were intended to cripple so-called Republican departments in the way of reprisal. Confusion arose from cross purposes between the two houses in its closing day and much important legislation failed of enactment.

WIFE WANTS WESTPHAL JAILED FOR ALIMONY

Mrs. Abbie Westphal wants to have her husband, the wealthy miller, confined in the county jail, because, she says, he has failed to pay her $20 per month alimony as he was ordered to do recently by Superior Judge Harris. Mrs. Westphal is engaged in pressing her second action for divorce. A former complaint was dismissed. Recently she went into court and obtained an order for $30 per month alimony until such time as she had received sufficient to deem a diamond ring which her husband had given her.

It was understood that the alimony would be $25 per month. None of this sum has been paid, according to her affidavit upon which she asks that her husband be cited into court for contempt and to show cause why he should not go to jail.

was issued at Washington by Assistant Commissioner of Immigration. Larned when the lecturer opposed the church Hindoo bill before the House immigration committee the last of February. His three-year period of residence in this country had already elapsed, a fact which was not apparently known to the immigration authorities in Washington.

The latter had been requested to apprehend Har Dayal by Ernest Scott, first secretary of the British embassy in Washington. The British government had long had its eye on Har Dayal and claimed that he was a dangerous agitator and that he had attempted to stir up a revolution in British India. Before the warrant for his apprehension was served upon him he had completed his lecture tour.

immigration committee and had returned to California. The papers for his arrest were sent on to the immigration office here and their service followed.

DAYAL IS ILL.

BERKELEY, March 28.—Har Dayal was prevented by illness last evening from attending in this city the meeting of the William Morris Circle, which was expected to address the meeting was expected to address a number of university students and others, including several Hindoos interested in the fate of their fellow countrymen.

It is stated here that if Har Dayal is deported from this country he will still be outside the clutches of Great Britain, because he came here from France. He was graduated from Oxford University, where he was a student by India, and went from that country to France. It is averred that if this country expels him it will have to return him to France and cannot land him upon British soil.

Har Dayal denies that his arrest is the result of local disfavor with his liberal ideas. He declares it is the direct result of British activity and the "despicable pro-British subservience of the United States government at the present time" that is responsible.

"The Democratic administration is lacking the boots of England, as any one may see who observes the attitude of the administration on the 'canal toll question,' he declared. He added:

"The British government is much concerned with the unrest in India. It is trying to stamp out all revolutionary movements, to overthrow the British government in this country, has for its sole aim the spreading of the anti-British revolutionary propaganda in India. The British government is simply acting through the Democratic administration in hounding me."

"I have been in this country over three years and I don't come under the exclusion act, so I can't be deported legally. But if I am deported, I would just as soon live in France, Germany or Switzerland as in the United States."

BROKEN NO I.A.W.

"It is simply ridiculous to think that I am being prosecuted in the United States and in the twentieth century because of my ideas. I have advocated breaking of any laws. The only overt act I have committed is advocating the overthrow of the British in India by an armed revolution."

He is significant that the federal authorities here have sixteen articles from my paper wherein I expose the evils of the British government in India. These articles are all political, dealing with British politics in India. Aside from that they are as respectable as a Boston spinster's Sunday bonnet."

"Now doesn't that look as if the immigration authorities were acting against John Bull, who is the present boss of the Democratic administration?"

MERE COINCIDENCE.

"It is a mere coincidence that I have certain radical theories of my own, and that I preach the overthrow of the British in India. These two facts have no more significance when taken together than the coincidence that my skin is brown and I happen to wear a brown shirt."

"In advocating revolt in India I am not concerned with shipping rates, or India or building up a military organization here. I am working along the same lines as the ultra-respectable churches of this country when they take up collections for the famines of India. If India were not bled for British military adventures there would be less famines. I am fighting for free speech and free assembly in India. Respectable white men have fought for the same cause. As for my personal opinions, they amount to nothing. I am changing them all the time."

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Scalloping a fire escape in broad daylight on a heavily traveled thoroughfare, a burglar broke into the home of Mrs. F. Williams, 1280 Sutter street, this morning. Jewelry to the value of $150 was taken from the front room.

Shoots Waiter for Indifferent Service

FORT WAYNE, Ind., March 28.—Anthony-Trentman, a wealthy brewer, was held in jail last night on a charge of having shot H. G. Bruce, a negro waiter at a local hotel. Trentman told the police that he shot the negro because the waiter had treated his request for his overcoat in an indifferent manner.

The shooting occurred at an hour when the hotel cafe was crowded. Physicians said Bruce could not live.

COOPER TELLS OF HIS LIFE'S CRIMES

Chief Petersen Receives Word That Arch Criminal Is Writing Autobiography.

imprisonments on felony charges, ten forgeries of notes of large denominations and a score of minor forgeries.

"If we did not send after Cooper and bring him back," said Chief of Police Petersen today, "it would be an invitation to crooks to commit crimes in this city and then leave for another country, feeling that they were safe in so doing. The extradition treaties between various nations have proved most effective in preventing criminals from avoiding punishment."

"Cooper is one of the biggest and cleverest criminals that ever operated in Oakland. While on parole from San Quentin he came to Oakland, forged a check here for a large sum of money, victimized a family, married, and committed other crimes."

It is not right that a reckless ex-convict such as Cooper should be turned loose upon any community and allowed to continue his career of crime. I believe that he should be brought back to Oakland and tried for his offenses here, and I shall apply through the district attorney's office to the governor of California for a requisition for his extradition. If the requisition papers are granted the cost of bringing him back to Oakland from South Africa, which will run to several hundred dollars, will be paid by the state and not by the city of Oakland.

NO PLEASURE PARTY.

"If anybody thinks that it is going to be a pleasure party to bring this crook back to Oakland he is mistaken. Cooper has been guilty of about every crime on the calendar, including conspiracy to commit murder, and with his cleverness and recklessness it will be no small job for one man to bring him back to Oakland."

Cooper's wives, according to his confession, were Helen Scott of Sydney, N. S. W., whom he married July 17, 1895; Bertha Ethel Young, 17 years of age, of Brisbane, England, whom he left a year later; Theresa Van Velden, a prison missionary, whom he married in San Quentin in 1909, and Miss Anna Milbrath, an Oakland nurse, whom he married here in 1905, while he was living with his third wife in East Oakland. He fled from Oakland with Anna Milbrath and eluded the police of the United States and Canada, finally reaching London, England, where he abandoned the young woman and went to South Africa.

The following is a history of the case of Cooper, as given by the chief of police.

Real name, Charles Ernest Chadwick, born at Maryland, New South Wales, Australia, 1867.

On October 28, 1888, arrived at Sydney, N. S. W., from England.

During 1891 was arrested at Sydney and released on bail for $1000.

On July 4, 1892, at the Yau quarters sessions, New South Wales, was sentenced to six months' hard labor for obtaining money by false pretenses.

July 17, 1895, as Harry Westwood Cooper, married Helen Scott at Sydney, N. S. W., deserting her two brothers at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia.

June 12, 1896, at Brisbane, Queensland, married Bertha Ethel Young, age 17 years.

August 22, 1896, left Australia for England with his wife, giving out that he was going to London to claim an estate.

November 4, 1896, left England for America with his wife. He was then called the name of Charles Cooper.

December 8, 1896, he was tried at Philadelphia Pa. for depositing in bank there a worthless draft for $10,000. Case was dismissed.

Shortly after this he occupied a pulpit of a Presbyterian church at Toronto, Canada.

FLEEED LANDLADY.

During May, 1897, he fleeced his landlady in Chicago out of $2000 by forged drafts and came to San Francisco.

At San Francisco he took lodgings at the Langham Hotel as Sir Harry Westwood Cooper, physician.

He was subsequently tried for forgery of checks, and was sentenced to six years, but was discharged by order of the Supreme Court.

While a prisoner at San Quentin, married Miss Tessa Van Velden, a religious worker, on special license obtained by the woman. Marriage performed in his cell. A son was born to them.

As Dr. Milton Abraham, eloped from Oakland with Anna Milbrath, a nurse at St. Anthony's Hospital, in which he was to have purchased an interest. February 4, 1906, he married Anna Milbrath on a forged license that sum to McKay's credit.

He went to Canada with this woman and set up a practice at 15 Russell street, Halifax, as Richard J. Monahan, M. D., physician and surgeon.

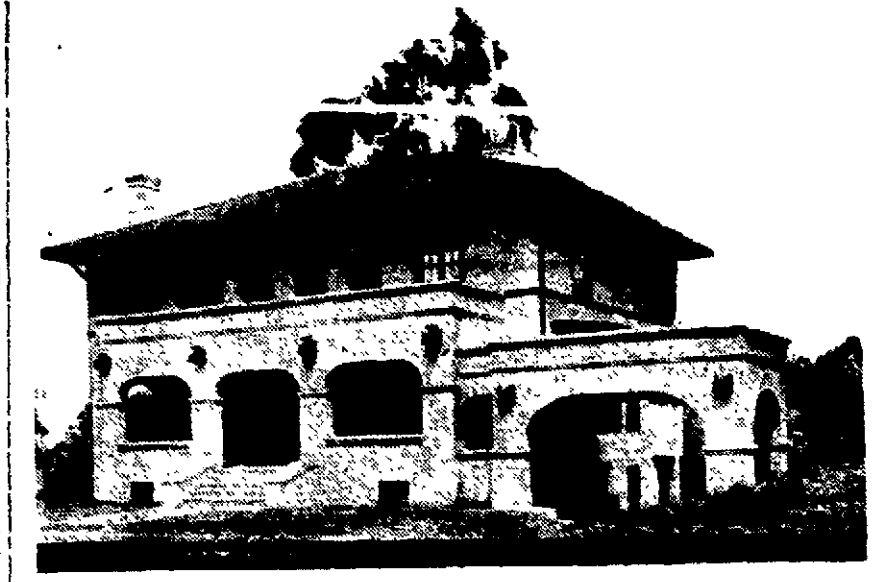

Under the name of Dr. Thomas O'Connor, he presented a forged document to the Royal Bank of Canada, Halifax, for $2500. He obtained this money, but subsequently paid back the same to the bank, plus 4 per cent interest and no prosecution followed.

He spent the greater part of the years 1901 and 1902 in different parts of Canada, in lumber camps and other places, and made a lot of money.

While in 1902 he went to London, mixed in good society, but at a dinner one night was recognized by an American. He at once left the room and left England as a first class passenger, arriving at Cape Town, April 30, 1902, and during the voyage became friendly with a music hall girl named Jennie Reeve. At Cape Town he called on the government bacteriologist.

CROOKED WORK.

came infatuated with Noorin, her 17-year-old daughter. He induced Captain Colville, a resident of Vallejo, to accompany him to San Francisco, where they went to the Donahue-Kelly Bank, where Captain Colville induced Cooper's bogus draft for $1000. Cooper was given a pass book for $1000. He promptly altered this amount to $2570, and later on, by his act, penwork, added $1700 to his credit. After this he forged a telegram in the name of the British consul at San Francisco to the effect that $10,000 had arrived for Cooper from London.

On February 22, 1901, he fled with Noorin Schneider and was apprehended at Ogden.

October 5, 1901, he was sentenced to ten years in the San Quentin prison for forgery of checks. He was subsequently tried for perjury and sentenced to six years. He appealed successfully, and during 1904 was discharged by order of the Supreme Court.

WHY KNOWLAND FOR SENATOR?

There will be plenty of candidates to succeed Senator Perkins. Some of them are impressed with their own ability. Some believe they would fill a long felt want. Others need the honor.

Let us consider what a Senator should be now, as a representative of California. During the next senatorial term the great material interests of this State will need more attention than ever, and will need it in the Senate. To serve the State a Senator must be so independent as to give all of his time and attention to the State. He must have as much legislative experience as possible. He must be above suspicion as to private or personal motives. Does any other aspirant present a claim to these characteristics and qualifications that even approximates the known record of Mr. Knowland?

In his own modest presentation he spoke kindly and well of Senator Perkins. This manly course has been attacked, and so far it is the only attack made upon him. Since when did it become a public offense in this State for one public man to speak well of another?

Senator Perkins has served his State in the Legislature, as Governor and for twenty years in the Senate. He is physically stricken with the infirmities of age, but that will which carried him from the position of cabin boy on a sail ship to the high seat he holds, has sustained him in the consistent and useful discharge of every senatorial duty. Who offers to impeach any part of his fine career? Who dares to propose that any Californian be pilloried for commending him?

Mr. Knowland is young, virile, vital, with a prolonged legislative experience, exceeded only by that of Senator Perkins. In the State Legislature no shadow fell across his escutcheon, and his record was stainless, as a star. He knew the merits, the material interests and needs of his native State, as well as men know the path from their homes to their offices. He originated most of the useful legislation for the administration of the Panama canal and powerfully supported it all. In the present crisis he stands between the President and the blow he is aiming at the Pacific Coast. He is an American, believing in his country and his countrymen. There is no interest of his fellow citizens so small as to escape his attention, and no force hostile to them so formidable as to excite his fear.

California needs him in the Senate, far more than he needs the honor.

The Tax Association.

The Alameda County Tax Association is conducting a campaign to raise funds for the purpose of carrying on its investigations. The organization should receive the support of all good citizens for the reason that it is engaged in an excellent work. The association is trying hard to secure efficiency in the public service. If it does not receive the support of the citizens it cannot live. Here is the platform of the association and every good citizen should enroll under its terms:

"What the Tax Association is after is this: A charter for Alameda county, a revision of the charter of the city of Oakland, so that with a united community we can make the city of Oakland and the county of Alameda the most celebrated and best-known city and county on the coast. We want to secure all the benefits to be derived by the united effort of our citizens. We want to induce the right sort of people to come to Oakland and establish themselves here in Oakland and to make their homes here. There is only one way to get ourselves in position to offer these things, that is by united effort and teamwork between the newspapers, the heavy taxpayers, moderate taxpayers and the laboring man. They have all got to stand together, and so standing they can get—

- "CENTRALIZED AUTHORITY
- "COORDINATION
- "STANDARDIZATION
- "FITNESS TO FILL THE POSITION
- "ACCURATE AND COMPLETE ACCOUNTING
- "COMPARATIVE COST DATA
- "THE FAIR DEAL
- "REWARD FOR MERIT

which, when in effect will give—

- "Absolute efficiency in the expenditure of public money.
- "A co-ordinated policy of public improvements to be worked over a long period of years.
- "A city planning scheme thoroughly worked out in advance.
- "Street improvements, parks and boulevards laid out years ahead and worked out under a systematic continuous policy.
- "In short, a city and county beautiful, the accomplishment of which will benefit every citizen from the highest to the lowest without fear or favor, with justice to all and special privileges to none."

"Now Look What You Went and Done."

Time was when one of the artists of a Sunday supplement ran a series of pictures in which a big lummock of a boy always ended his escapades by coming to grief and then blamed his smaller companion by saying: "Now, look what you went and done!"

Pineville is in Georgia. The map says so. Georgia is "dry," because it voted that way. But we predict a change. The worm has turned. Now, do not get excited; this is no anti-prohibition argument, and if it was we are too far away from Georgia too influence a majority.

But in Pineville "wet" sentiment is increasing. The editor of the home paper appears to be leading the movement. Listen to this, right hot from the editorial griddle—yes, that's the way it is spelled—not gridiron; griddle.

If we are going to stand for our women folks wearing shadow and slit skirts and our younger women learning to dance the boll weevil, Texas tommy, tango, the bunny hug, the bear dance, the half-center and the buzzard flop, and so on down the line, the men folks might just as well have their saloons and the whole push go to hades together.

There you have it. A whole community on the verge of abandoning the dusty road of virtue for the lubricated path of joy unless the women—who in Georgia were the strongest advocates of abolishing the thirst parlor—stop their semi-decollete pirouetting. What matters it if it is still the same old thing, any excuse for taking a drink? There should be no excuse offered. We tremble for the safety of Prohibition Georgia and her lemon pop, 'simon beer and pineapple juice (from Florida) unless the girls

Pineville kicks it is high time the balance of the commonwealth took notice.

If present policies are reversed and Georgia returns to its moonshine and its mountain dew," to its fiery product of the night rowed corn, which in its crude state will fix a man so he can sleep in a stable of mules and not one will kick him, then this reproach will be offered the women:

"Now look what you went and done!"

Although there is a similarity of names, it does not seem hardly fair for the San Luis Obispo Tribune to "lift" a column of editorial from the OAKLAND TRIBUNE and stamp it as its ownest own.

Amusements Part of City Life.

Legitimate amusements such as are found on the dramatic and operatic stage and in lighter forms of similar nature are as essential to the welfare of a large community as its churches and schools. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" in the center of population as well as in the outside districts. Well-conducted places of amusement are a potent factor in securing population. The home-seeker in the larger localities looks to this feature with as much interest as he scans the means of transportation.

These enterprises cannot be conducted unless the patronage is sufficiently large to enable those in the business to realize something on their investment. Hence it is a semi-public duty for the citizen to support them when such support is merited.

Oakland has several standard playhouses, in addition to the usual "movies," which are by no means to be looked upon as trivial affairs, where the offerings are as good as in any city in the country. They equal those of San Francisco in every respect for the reason that the companies playing San Francisco must also play Oakland.

Yet it is noted, and the statement is made with some reluctance, that a great many people from this side of the bay go to the other to see attractions that may be seen here.

This is error, for it is not only more expensive to the seeker after pleasure because of money spent for transportation, but it is taking the cash from the legitimate local enterprise and paying it to another neighborhood. There is no more difference in leaving amusements at home to attend the same performance by the same players in another town than there is in leaving one's breakfast, lunch or dinner and riding five or six miles away to get the same meal at added cost.

It has been suggested that the cafes and hotels here may be in a measure to blame for a part of this condition. That if a special effort on behalf of after-theater patrons should be made, with no advance in the prices—a system obtaining in every large city in America—more money would be expended in local playhouses. If this suggestion is true, it would mean also that the cafes and hotels would profit.

The situation is worthy of the serious consideration of all who attend evening performances, of the cafe and hotel men, and of those who want to see Oakland's places of amusement prosper and be enabled to constantly add to the lists of attractions, the ultimate result being the establishment of a reputation of having features such as have been alluded to, second to none. Think it over!

Railroad Fares for 1915.

It is gratifying to note that the members of the Transcontinental Traffic Association, which recently concluded a session across the bay, propose a $50 rate for the round trip from Missouri River points to this coast in 1915. Also to learn that the round trip rate from New York and Boston, which will affect all visitors from Europe, will not be more than $80 or $85.

This is a rate of one cent a mile or less across the continent. Railroad men declare it means a sacrifice that can only be justified by heavy travel, but we predict and hope for such an immense rush in this direction that in the end the several companies will feel themselves highly compensated.

The Watsonville Register designates the effort to retain the free tolls for American coastwise vessels in the Panama Canal Act as a movement to "let the shipping trust loot the pockets of the people." Coincident with this somewhat startling declaration, the Watsonville Pajaronian has something to say concerning the editor of the Register being in the race for the local post-office.

Watsonville postoffice is one of the plums President Wilson has to distribute.

Although spring is here, Ireland appears to be striving its best not to shed its Ulster.

Twenty Years Ago Today

County Clerk Crane made a little trip to Colusa, county, for a few days to visit his son and daughter.

At a parish meeting of the St. John's Episcopal church of Oakland, the following were elected as vestrymen for the ensuing year: Charles D. Haven, Van L. Eastland, C. R. Jones, R. M. Sherman, Chauncey Taylor, Morris K. Allen, Gustav L. Mox.

After nearly sixteen years of litigation, during which one lone woman has succeeded in standing off with fair success the Southern Pacific Railroad company and the town of Berkeley, the far-famed Townsend case is in a fair way to be settled. The trouble began in 1873, when the tracks of the Berkeley road were being laid. Mrs. Townsend's property is about 250 feet above Dwight way, on the east side of Shattuck avenue. A railroad people wished to run a track across the rail, bringing the car to a stop. An attempt was made to move her but was abandoned at the sight of the cooked and loaded weapon. A compromise was finally effected. Then the town stepped in and wanted to open Shattuck avenue, according to the lines run by the town engineer. The plucky woman succeeded in stopping this work and since that time to the present nearly forty years were made to make Mrs. Townsend agree to the opening of the street, but in vain.

The Sacramento Bee has of late declared that it would be a positive gain for Sacramento to get rid of the capital. Now, then, let the Bee show its faith in its own declaration by agitating the removal of the capital to Oakland. We are not looking for it, but Oakland is infinitely better suited for the state capital than either San Jose or Sacramento. The directors of the San Francisco Savings Union performed an act which redounds immensely to their credit and which will be heartily endorsed by every law-abiding citizen, when they passed a resolution donating $5,000 to Mrs. Herrick in recognition of their appreciation of the courage and loyalty of her son in defending their property at the cost of his own life, and $500 to Charles S. Melvin for the eminent services rendered at the same time.

James M. Stow of Walnut Creek will be a prominent candidate at the next Republican convention for the nomination of railroad commissioner of this district, though many of his friends are urging him to run for the state board of equalization. County Recorder R. W. Church has gone to Los Angeles on a little trip. He may have a few words to say in a patriotic way down south.

FOR COLD FEET

In cold weather how can cold feet at night be prevented? To many people hot water bottles are an abomination. But a novel scheme is suggested in the London Chronicle—"Willing" the feet warm when one gets into bed. "A man told me the other day that he concentrated his mind, as it were, on his feet and willed them warm," says a writer in that newspaper. "Presently there was a sensation of tingling in his calves, and then his heels began to glow. The last night or two I have tried this method, with some success. When I get more accustomed to it I hope to succeed perfectly. And there is this advantage about it. While you are willing your feet warm you can't be worrying about anything else."

Perhaps the most extraordinary of all methods of warding off cold is that adopted by some of the tribes of the Canadian northwest. It is a matter of discipline. The boys when young are first whipped in order to make their flesh tingle, and then sent to bathe in the half frozen rivers.

On entering their tents they are made to lie out of doors at night without clothing. The consequence is that those any weather without the slightest discomfort—Chicago News.

RED CROSS AEROPLANES

The aeroplane has been regarded as one of the most efficient aids to an army in its war operations, and while the army and naval experts have devoted much time and attention to perfecting machines for that purpose, it remained for a woman, Mrs. Marie Marinet of France, to point out that the aeroplane can be made one of the best adjuncts to the Red Cross and medical service in time of war.

Mrs. Marinet is an enthusiastic air pilot from the Aero club of the east and from the Aero club of France. She is a practical and efficient nurse and has given her services to the Red Cross society in France as an aero nurse to soldiers in line.

"With the aeroplane in use by the medical department of an army, more wounded men or a full battery could be brought back to the front, and the hospital efficiency of an army corps could be greatly increased by use of the aeroplane."

This novel suggestion of Mrs. Marinet was made at the 10th anniversary of the Red Cross society. For years she has held the attention of the people of France, who like a daring and adventurous person. She holds many records as a single woman who has flown over the Alps, the Pyrenees, the Caucasus, and the Himalayas. She is a member of the French Aero Club and the International Aero Club.

the Mediterranean ports. They will include Egypt in their itinerary. They are taking with them their touring car. They will sail on the Imperator. Before their departure Miss Beatrice Simpson entertained at an informal tea, and among her guests were:

Mrs. Roger Chickering, Mrs. Beauden Brady, Mrs. Florence Henshaw, Mrs. Clio Pusey, Miss Nadine Eiden, Miss Irene Farrell, Mrs. Thomas Knowles.

During Miss Beatrice Simpson's absence abroad her mother will have as her guest her niece, Mrs. Smith, and her sister, Miss Owens, both from Los Angeles.

Miss Elizabeth Orrick is passing wonderful days in Dunedin, Florida.

(Lou Entz). The latter spent a great deal of time in Oakland, as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. S. Orrick. Miss Orrick writes delightful letters telling of a wonderful trip to picturesque Havana and of happy days in Florida.

WIFE OF BOLIVIA

MINISTER VISITOR HERE

Mrs. Calderon and her daughter, Miss Calderon, have been guests of the Redmans at the home of the latter in Piedmont. Mrs. Calderon is the wife of the minister from Bolivia, and she is an exceedingly charming woman.

Mr. and Mrs. James Athearn Folger are planning to sail for Europe next month, and they have engaged passage on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie. They are to join the Misses Cunningham abroad, and they will all return to spend the summer at "Hazelwood Hills," the country home of the Folgers near Redwood City.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Titus are spending some March days in the east, Mr. Titus having gone there on business. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Requa are also in New York, and they expect to return to their home in Piedmont sometime in April.

Mrs. Bacon Spile, Miss Carrie Bacon and Douglas Soule are planning to return to Oakland for the summer, and will open "Thorhill," their home here. In the autumn they will return to Munich, that Douglas Soule may go on with his musical studies. He has already achieved distinction by his splendid playing of the violin.

Ensign and Mrs. Nielson (Helen Nicol) will leave early in April for the Grand Canyon en route for Idaho, where they will visit Ensign Nielson's relatives. They will return to Berkeley by the latter part of April, when Ensign Nielson will report for duty.

Mr. and Mrs. John Powers Hutchins (Elizabeth McNear) are now in Western Siberia, where Mr. Hutchins is engaged in big engineering problems. They plan to return in May to St. Petersburg, to visit Mrs. McNear, who sails on the Imperator on the fifteenth.

Mrs. Harry Maxwell has surprised her friends and her family by sailing away to China, and she is now en route to the Orient. Mrs. Maxwell originally intended to spend a few days in Honolulu, but she met on the way there some most interesting fellow travelers, and she has joined their party, and extended her trip to the Orient. She will have a much needed rest and she will no doubt enjoy the picturesqueness of the far off Orient.

Mrs. Grayson Hinckley and her daughters, the Misses Helen, Marian and Georgia Hinckley, will leave soon for Beowawe, Nevada, to spend the summer on the ranch. During the winter they have resided at the Te Kitteroa, on Van Ness avenue. They will have with them during part of the summer Miss Helen Stone, whose engagement to Grayson Hinckley was announced last winter.

He is making a great success of his work on the big Beowawe ranch and he spent several months in studying conditions on the big cattle ranges of the Argentine.

Mrs. Lloyd Rawlings and her daughter, Miss Jane Rawlings, after several weeks spent in the bay region, have returned to their home in Los Gatos. Some months ago they sold their home on Santa Rosa avenue, and they have decided to take up their permanent residence in Los Gatos, where they have a beautiful home.

McMINTON'S IS BEAUTIFUL HOME.

The Andrew McMintons are now established in their new home in Quaker Hills, and it bids fair to be one of the most attractive residences in that beautiful part of our city.

Not far away from their home will be the very handsome residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Larkey, which has already been commenced, and which will add one more to the attractive magnificent hill slopes.

PICTURES IN THE MEDDLER.

Mrs. Walter Curtis Palmer, whose picture is seen in the Meddler today, was one of the brides of the month, her marriage having taken place

March 17. She was formerly Miss Annabelle Root.

Mrs. Paul T. Carroll is also a bride of a few weeks, as was Miss Edith Atkins of San Francisco.

Mrs. Frank Rounthwaite frequently entertains at informal affairs, her guests including members of the exclusive set on both sides of the bay. Miss Dorothy Churchill and her mother, Mrs. E. W. Churchill, were hostesses at one of the handsomely appointed luncheons of the season recently at the Hotel Oakland.

THE MEDDLER.

Society

MISS CATHERINE CULVER, whose engagement to Rev. Dwight Bradley was recently announced, was guest of honor at a given Thursday afternoon by Miss Mary McClees. The occasion was one of the delightful affairs of the season. It was a "yellow and white" tea and the color scheme was artistically carried out.

White flowers. There were brown baskets filled with buttercups and great bunches of Scotch broom in the reception room, with branches of white fruit blossoms. In the dining room yellow iris and roses were used and the table was shaded with yellow candles. There were yellow frosted cakes, yellow and white bonbons and ices to match. Even the guest of honor fitted charmingly into the color scheme, in a pretty gown of yellow silk with a tulle of white lace. Miss McClees had sent out 150 cards and nearly that number of guests called between the hours of four and six. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. W. L. Culver, Mrs. C. B. Bradley, Mrs. C. F. Nash, Mrs. A. W. Palmer, Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. Martha Haven, Miss Inna Church, Mrs. Ernest Atkins, Mrs. William Morris and Mrs. Louis Urquhart. Among those present were Mrs. Murray Johnson, Mrs. Charles Platter, Mrs. Harry Benner, Miss Gertrude Carlton, Mrs. A. W. Coffin, Mrs. Baldwin, Miss Emma Wellman, Miss Helen Pendleton, Miss Grace Fisher, Professor C. B. Bradley, Dr. C. F. Nash, Rev. A. W. Palmer and Mr. Caruth.

DANCE AT COUNTRY CLUB.

A dance at the Claremont Country Club next Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. L. Campbell, who will leave a few days later for Europe. They have planned a delightful trip, including motor tours of France and Germany and will be absent six or eight months. A number of farewell affairs have been given in their honor, among them being the dinner dance Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Denicke gave recently at the Country Club. Judge and Mrs. Wright will entertain 35 guests.

Mrs. Frederick Bain was hostess at a bridge party yesterday afternoon at her attractive home in Fruitvale, where she entertained a dozen guests in honor of Mrs. Charles Trvon, who is visiting Oakland from her home in Northern California. Mrs. Trvon was formerly Miss Kate Paulais of Oakland, and during her stay she is being entertained at a number of informal affairs given by her friends. Among Mrs. Bain's guests were Mrs. William Milroy, Mrs. Charles H. Bain, Mrs. Roy Milroy, Miss Pauline Crosby, Mrs. Alfred Dana, Mrs. Belvoir Adamson and Mrs. Walter Brann.

RETURN FROM DEL MONTE. Mrs. Clinton Walker and Miss Ellen O'Sullivan returned several days ago from a brief visit to Del Monte. Miss O'Sullivan is the sister of Mrs. Oscar Sato and is visiting at the Sato home in Piedmont.

LEFT FOR THE EAST. Mr. and Mrs. Louis McDermott, who have been living at the St. Francis during the winter, left for the East several days ago, to be absent six months. They went directly to Boston and later will visit some of the Eastern summer resorts.

DANCE FOR YOUNGER SET. Miss Henriette Harspring and Sydney Harspring will entertain about 50 of the younger set at a dance this evening at their home in Claremont. Among the guests will be: Miss Martina Hardley, Miss Alice Summerhays, Miss Margaret Cornwall, Miss Ruth Grimes, Miss Henriette Brandt, Miss Ruth Simpson, Miss Hazel Payne, Edward Sinclair, Nell Cornwall, Chestley Roberts, William Alender, Grady Standefer, Ernest Sternberg and Lee Dunham.

GIVES SHOWER LUNCHEON. Miss Madeline Burke was hostess at a "shower" luncheon Thursday in honor of Miss Aileen Larkin, who is leaving for a trip to Europe. The table was decorated with ever purple daffodils, and at each place were artificial orange flowers for favors. During luncheon a dainty French hat boxed with yellow ribbons was brought in and presented to the guest of honor. On the cover was a bunch of French cornflowers and within a dozen handkerchiefs, embroidered with Miss Larkin's monogram. Among those present were: Mrs. Thomas Kent, Mrs. Wynne Nevell, Miss Helen Johnston, Miss Edith Versek, Miss Josephine Adams, Miss John Nat-Smith, Miss Irene Collins, Miss Genevieve Owen and Miss Margarette Sherer. On Thursday of last week Miss Shear gave an informal tea for Miss Corwin, entertaining the same group of girls and young matrons, with one or two others.

TEA IN BERKELEY.

The tea given yesterday afternoon by Miss Helen Versek at her mother's home in Berkeley was an unusually pretty affair that was quite as much a garden party as a tea. The garden of the Versek residence is most attractive and the guests found their way there from the reception room to the garden over the lawn and among the flowers.

The affair was in honor of Mrs. Reuben Haas of San Francisco, a bride of last August. Her mother, Mrs. James Madison, and Miss Olive Madison of Fresno, who are guests of the Steward in San Francisco, resided with Miss Versek, as did Mrs. Elmer Carlisle and Miss Alma Carlisle.

The rooms were decorated with purple iris and in the garden the same flowers bloomed in profusion to match the house decorations. About 100 guests were entertained.

INFORMAL BRIDGE PARTY.

Mrs. George L. Wood entertained two tables of bridge this afternoon at her home in the Lakeside district. The guests were a coterie of intimate friends who frequently meet for an afternoon of cards followed by tea.

IN HONOR OF MISS JOHNSON. Mrs. Hattie Gray was hostess at a shower party last Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Alice Johnson, the fiancée of Earl Jeffrey, who took place at the home of the hostess on Hudson street and College avenue. The interior was attractively decorated for the occasion. Among the guests were Miss Anita and Miss Alvina Jeffrey, Miss Edith Benjamin, Miss Mabel Johnson, Miss Edith Woodward, Miss Annabelle Jones, Miss Amelia Stone, Miss Larsen, Miss Stella Smith, Miss Jessie Angus, Miss Lola Russ, Miss Amanda Bass, Miss Alice Hink, Miss Pearl Johnson, Miss Lillian Roberts, Miss Juliette Sandkuhle, Miss Leonora Hobbs, Miss Agnes Rafferty and a complement of men friends.

LUNCHEON FOR VISITOR. Mrs. Clarence Johnson was hostess at a pretty luncheon yesterday at her home in Alameda, where guests were entertained in honor of Miss Stitt of Santa Rosa, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Myron Harris. The table decorations were a pretty arrangement of daffodils. The living room and hall were decorated with blue blossoms for the occasion. The guests included Mrs. Myron Harris, Mrs. J. Jerome Smith, Mrs. Anne Edith Smith, Mrs. Evelyn Dunham, Mrs. Fred Rudledge and Miss Thelma Caldwell.

TO LIVE IN THE EAST.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bassick will leave the latter part of April for the East to make their home in Connecticut, where Mr. Bassick has business interests. Since their marriage the Bassicks have occupied an attractive home at Claremont Manor, where they have entertained frequently. There are many regrets at their departure and several farewell affairs are being planned in their honor.

PLAN CHURCH WEDDING. The date for the wedding of Miss Grace Ewing and Joseph Hunt has been set for April 28. It will be a large affair, at the Fourth Congregational church, with a number of attendants. Rev. R. W. Palmer of Plymouth Congregational church will perform the ceremony. Among the entertainments in honor of Miss Ewing will be a bridge luncheon to be given on April 15 by Miss Jean Kennedy.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED. The engagement of Miss Lois Voswinkel and Samuel Stephens, son of Mrs. Julia Sanborn, has been announced. Miss Voswinkel, who will graduate from the University of California in May, makes her home at the Berkeley Inn with her mother, Mrs. Emma Voswinkel. Her fiancé is a graduate of the University and of Hastings Law College. No date has been set for the wedding.

CHURCH LUNCHEON. There was a luncheon for 200 in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church yesterday. Those entertained were members of the Women's Missionary Society, who met at the church yesterday morning. The luncheon was given under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the church, of which Mrs. J. B. Gerrish is president.

FAREWELL PARTIES. Mrs. P. M. Leiber will give a bridge party at the Hotel Claremont in honor of Mrs. T. N. Leiber, who will leave on April 15 for Europe. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Robert Lauerstein will give a tea for Mrs. Leydecker at her home in Alameda.

WOMAN OF MYSTERY IS SENT TO AN ASYLUM

Found Wandering Near Crystal Springs Reservoir in Dazed Condition

REDWOOD CITY, March 28.—In spite of a dew that seemed to wash the hills, a 25-year-old woman found wandering in the hills near Crystal Springs lake, San Mateo county, was yesterday committed to Agnews Insane Asylum.

Identified after having her case examined by the county physician. Apparently she was indifferent when ordered to the asylum after the inquiry by Dr. J. L. Ross and Dr. J. E. Chapin.

It was discovered that before being taken into custody, Wednesday she had met Frederick Vallejo, of Redwood City, whom she told that she had walked from Haight and Broderick streets, San Francisco. How long she had been on the road she could not or would not tell. She also is said to have admitted that she had been married.

When brought into court yesterday she refused to open her lips. Beyond shaking or nodding her head she gave no sign that she understood a single remark addressed to her.

"Are you keeping silent because you want to do so?" she was asked by one of the physicians. She nodded. "Are you dumb?" was another inquiry put to her, and this time she shook her head in denial.

She has shown only one sign of emogold solution that makes them impervious to the ordinary ill with which we are afflicted.

"If you want to be in the mode this year," said Miss La Rue, "you'll have to wear a hat of one-piece silk."

MAYORS WANT PEOPLE TO PASS JUDGMENT

All Water District Questions to Be Submitted on Referendum Vote

Mayors of the seven cities included in the proposed metropolitan water district have signed an agreement that they will pledge their appointees to the board of directors to the proposed district to submit all questions of bonding, purchase and sale of properties to a referendum vote of the people of the district, and shall not make a purchase of corporation property excepting upon a valuation made by the State Railroad Commission.

The mayors gathered in Mayor Frank K. Mott's chamber in the city hall last evening and signed, Mayors J. J. Gill of San Leandro and William D. Heywood of Berkeley signing today.

The instrument signed by the mayors follows:

To the Voters and Residents of the Proposed Metropolitan Water District:

Under an enabling act of the state legislature for the creation of a metropolitan water district, provision is made for an election at which the qualified voters of the district shall determine whether such a district shall be created.

The act also provides for the selection of a board of directors for the district, five of whom are to be elected by the people and eight to be appointed. Of these eight directors one is to be chosen by the chief executive of each city within the district and one to represent the unincorporated territory therein.

Several incorporated cities within the boundaries of the proposed metropolitan water district, do hereby declare and pledge that in the event such metropolitan water district shall be created at a special election on such appointees, each and all of them, to the board of directors of said metropolitan water district shall pledge himself and themselves upon their honor to submit to the people of the district any proposition which may be offered or contemplated for the purchase or acquisition of a water supply for said metropolitan water district.

TO DIRECTORS.

These appointed directors shall also be pledged to obtain from the State Railroad Commission, before taking any action upon the purchase or acquisition of a water supply, a valuation of the plant or project offered under the provisions of the metropolitan water district act.

This pledge shall be as comprehensive as to include definite and specific understanding that the directors so pledged shall under no circumstances seek to purchase or acquire any water supply for such district until the qualified voters of the district shall have passed upon the question at a special election to be called for that purpose, and the result of which shall determine the action of the directors pledged under this declaration.

POLICEMAN IS ALLEGED GRAFTER

Chief White of San Francisco Makes Discovery of Note Relative to Force.

Patrolman Phillip Welch was stripped of his star and his insignia of office by Chief of Police White this morning and instructed that he would better send in his resignation to the police department, as the result of an episode which occurred Saturday night in Jefferson square. The officer is alleged to have deliberately planned a holdup game and to have attempted to arrest a man from a prisoner whom he took into custody for a crime planned by himself.

With the aid of a decoy, the patrolman, it is claimed, planned to have a man, whose name is withheld, commit a crime. He then rushed in and caught his victim. The prisoner pleaded for release, saying he had a wife and family and that the disgrace would kill him.

Welch, it is said, offered to release him for $150. A meeting was arranged and the officer faced his victim at the corner of Sixth and Folsom streets last evening.

The accused, meanwhile, had consulted with Chief White, and he was living in concealment, together with Police Commissioner Kuhl when Welch and his man kept their appointment. They saw $25 paid over by the victim and then interfered.

When Welch was told this morning that he had better resign he said, "I'll think it over."

Chief White took his star, key, handcuffs and club and suspended him.

SYMBOLIZE ASSOCIATION SPIRIT

Miss Dorothy Vockel (upper) and Miss Elizabeth Bonsall as heralds.

"Ministering of Gift" Is Given in Piedmont Amphitheater

With the sounding of the bugle by gentle couriers the Young Women's Christian Association pageant, entitled "The Ministering of the Gift," opened this afternoon in the Eucalyptus amphitheater in Piedmont park. The buglers rushed the audience into silence, which continued throughout the recital of the prologue, which was given by Mrs. George Reinhardt, who essayed the leading role, "Association Spirit." The beautiful young couriers who heralded the advent of the "Association Spirit" were Miss Esther Sharon, Miss Mildred D. Ritchie, Miss Elizabeth Vockel, and Miss Dorothy Vockel. The members of the Romanic club of the association acted as the attendants upon the buglers.

The program was divided into four parts, which revealed the work of the Young Women's Christian Association in its various branches.

The first part was a realistic and inspiring. The purpose of the association was told in song and story. The attractive girls of Mills College and the University of California appeared in graceful dances and gave a number of choral numbers, which added to the beauty of the festival.

The spirit of the association throughout the production was carefully arranged by the following workers, who head the various committees:

Pageant, Miss Grace M. Fisher; business, Mrs. Ray E. Gilson; properties, Miss Claribel Williams; decorations, Miss Clinton Walker; usher, Miss Helen Van Slyke; music, Mrs. Spencer Riley; director of chorus, Howard Pratt; director of orchestra, George Andrew Smith; pianist, Thomas Fred Freeman; libretto, Miss Helen Thoburn; secretary in charge, Miss Julia T. Lee.

The orchestral program was given under the leadership of George Andrew Smith. The musicians in the orchestra were:

Violins—Miss Viola Furth, Mrs. Roy Cowles, Miss Genevieve Owen, Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Helen Thoburn, Miss Morrill, Mrs. Fred Watson, Miss Ida Schneider, Miss Margaret Williams, Miss Beatrice St. John, Sidney Marr, L. Perot; viola, Miss Blodgett; cello, William Coffey, Miss Helen, Leon Chamberlain; flute, Miss Flora Jones; bass, W. W. Whitner, clarinet, Miss Lucille Gignoux; cornet, Miss Olga Anderson, Melvin Broderick, Walter St. John; French horn, George Eldridge; piano—Miss Mary Coffey and Thomas Freeman.

The officers of the association are: Mrs. J. P. Richardson, honorary president; Mrs. C. M. Hill, first vice-president; Mrs. L. G. Purpus, second vice-president; Miss Eva Powell, third vice-president; Mrs. Walter Henry, fourth vice-president; Miss Claribel Williams, fifth vice-president; Miss Martha E. Haver, recording secretary; Mrs. F. G. Harper, treasurer; Miss Ida A. Green, general secretary.

CONCILIATION IN WAKE OF RELEASE

Mrs. Cole and Husband Leave Courthouse Smiling and Arm-in-Arm.

Arrested yesterday on a charge of passing a check when she had no funds in the bank, was dismissed before Judge George Samuels today on the motion of the prosecuting attorney. As a result of the arrest of Mrs. Cole it is quite probable that a reconciliation will be effected between her and her husband, Frank L. Cole, a well-known mining man, from whom she has been separated for several years.

The arrest of Mrs. Cole was the result of an error in making out the check. The check was drawn for $17.50 to the White House, San Francisco, with this signature. The check was naturally returned marked "no funds," and Mrs. Cole was arrested on a warrant sworn to by William McCall, an employee of the White House.

Mrs. Cole was released last night on her own recognizance by Judge George Samuels. This morning the facts of the case were brought out at a preliminary examination, Frank C. Johnson, cashier of the First National Bank of Berkeley, explaining the reason why the check had not been honored.

Cole, the husband of the defendant, came to the city hall this morning and visited the Police Court to see if he could be of any assistance to his wife. The two had not seen each other for some time and Cole offered to do all he could and explained that he would see Mrs. Cole in every way in having the case dismissed. The two left the city hall arm in arm, and friends of the couple believe that a reconciliation may result from the untoward arrest.

TAKES ACTION IN THE OIL CASES

First Step Made in Written Memorandum Presented by Jas. W. Gerard.

REHLIN, March 28.—Formal action was begun today by the United States government against the petroleum monopoly bill recently introduced in the German imperial parliament. The first step taken was a written memorandum presented by James W. Gerard, United States ambassador, to Gottlieb von Jagow, the German foreign minister. The memorandum expresses the confident expectation of the United States government that certain injustices toward American investors contained in the monopoly bill in its present form will disappear before enactment.

The United States, it points out, has no wish either to intervene against Germany's establishment of an oil monopoly or to interfere with any arrangement between the Standard Oil Company and the German government should such agreement be made. It expects, however, that American citizens who have invested capital in German enterprises—for instance, the Standard Oil Company's German subsidiary concern—will be fully and fairly compensated for all investments canceled by the measure.

The committee in charge of the bill was to resume its discussions this week, but postponed the debate until April 28, and a further postponement is expected.

French diplomatic action concerning the petroleum question is expected in the case of the Pure Oil Company of Hamburg, refused permission to compete for government contracts. There is also the case of the discriminatory railroad rates granted in favor of German controlled oil imported from Galicia.

To Check Easter's Desecration as Day Of Clothing Display

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Designed to check what is declared to be a growing tendency on the part of the American people to make the Easter season the occasion for displaying fashionable clothes, a movement was launched here today to form the "Society for the Prevention of Easter Desecration." The members of this society would pledge themselves not to wear new articles of clothing beginning with Palm Sunday until after Easter Sunday.

In proposing the new society the District of Columbia Christian Endeavor Union declared that the real meaning of Easter is often lost sight of nowadays because of the popular craze for the new and fashionable clothing, and predicts that the movement will sadly increase the calm devotional spirit of that season.

Young Teacher Victim Of Brutal Murderer

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., March 28.—The body of Miss Lydia Preacher, a high school teacher of Poland, N. Y., was found in the outskirts of that town today. She had been stabbed to death while defending herself against an assailant.

The young woman left her boarding house last night to mail a letter. When she did not return search for her was begun but it was not until today that the body was found.

Miss Preacher was 21 years old. The authorities have arrested a suspect. His name is Camard and he is said to have been recently expelled from school by Miss Preacher. The authorities say that he was seen talking with the young woman last night. He could not be found at his home but was traced to Newport four miles from the scene of the tragedy.

The countryside has not been so stirred by any other crime since the murder of Grace Brown by Chester Gillette in this section eight years ago.

Block Menaced by Rooming-House Fire

A roof fire, believed to have been started by sparks from a chimney, this afternoon endangered the block on Eighth street, bounded by Broadway and Washington streets, only the prompt action of the fire department saving adjoining structures. The blaze started in the shingles of a vacant rooming house, opening at 468 Eighth street. The fire started in the rear. It was first discovered by Mrs. A. R. Kirk, who owns a rooming house in the next building.

Before the arrival of the fire department the entire lower portion of the roof was ablaze. This was torn away with axes, and the fire soon gotten under control. Harry Ross, a fireman, performed a heroic act when he climbed the rickety pole of the building already ablaze, to carry the hose across. The building was formerly owned by Abe Silverstein, and was recently sold to Edward Riley. The damage was estimated by the firemen at about $300.

Whistler Portraits Command Fortune

NEW YORK, March 28.—Two important portraits of Whistler, from the Richard Canfield collection which was sold this week, were purchased by Henry C. Frick. For the portrait of "Rosa Cordier," Mr. Frick paid $125,000 and for the portrait of "Leconte Robert," $15,000.

Church Seeks Control Of Vanderbilt University

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 28.—Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, today renewed their fight for control of Vanderbilt University and for rejection of Andrew Carnegie's offer of a million dollar gift to the institution.

The Supreme Court, the bishops ask a rehearing of the case. A recent decision of the court placed control of the university in the hands of a board of trust.

The bishops in their petition allege that Commodore Vanderbilt was not the founder of the university, but that it was founded by the church conference.

KILFOIL VICTIM'S FATHER ARRIVES

Parent of Lillian Palmer Will Make Personal Investigation of Her Condition.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 28.—Herbert Palmer of Montreal, Canada, father of Lillian Palmer, 17, who was killed by a Kilfoil, a renter salesman, is accused of having committed a statutory offense on the way to Los Angeles to make a personal investigation of the condition of his daughter, according to a statement issued yesterday by Kilfoil's attorneys.

The statement was said, learned only within the last few days that an encounter was in a San Diego hospital awaiting motherhood. He started westward as soon as possible, reaching Chicago yesterday.

The District Attorney continued yesterday in Los Angeles and San Diego his investigation of the charges against Kilfoil as his bride, Miss Edna Neilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Neilson of 2651 Penniman avenue. The ceremony will take place at the home of the parents of the bride-to-be, Rev. Andrews, pastor, minister and old friend of the bride, to read the ceremony. Miss Anne Wilbur, sister of the bride, and David Nior will be the attendants.

The young couple are well known in Fruitvale, where both have taken prominent part in social affairs. They will, after a brief honeymoon to be spent in the south, make their home in Oakland.

TOURS COMPANY HEADS SHOWN AROUND OAKLAND

Incidental to the visit to Oakland of the members of the Transcontinental Passenger Association yesterday, Secretary A. A. Denison of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce assisted in entertaining Leon Collier, of the Raymond & Whitcomb Tours Company, and also Lauriston Ward, advertising manager of the same.

They were shown through the new Oakland Hotel, and the parks and boulevards of Oakland, Alameda, Piedmont and Berkeley.

Mr. Collier said:

"The trip has been a revelation to me. Oakland is as attractive as Las Vegas, and the southern city is known throughout the world, and Oakland has not made its attractions known."

Mr. Collier promised to consider giving Oakland larger prominence in the publicity of the Raymond & Whitcomb Tours Company, and it is possible that this city will be included as one of the objective points.

THREE WORKMEN INJURED ON EXPOSITION GROUNDS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 28.—Three men were painfully injured in two accidents on the exposition grounds this morning and the emergency hospital erected within the confines of the 1915 fair was kept busy. A plank hurled from the dome of the horticultural building struck Don Donovan of 2215 Steiner street. The former received a broken arm and the latter suffered bruises about the body.

A tackle block being hoisted on the New York building fell and hit Theodore Tamborini of 1639 Lombard street. He received multiple lacerated wounds of the scalp. All were treated by Dr. Woodward.

Show Free Services Deplete Revenues

WASHINGTON, March 28.—James D. Brandeis, counsel for the Interstate Commerce Commission, in opposition to the proposed increased railroad rates, today submitted a statement showing that free services rendered shippers by railroads in classification territory result in serious depletion of the revenues of the roads. The special free service under consideration by the commission includes free storage, warehousing, loading and unloading of cars, lighterage, elevation of grain and various other free terminal services.

Mr. Brandeis asserted that the cost to the railroads of these free services was so great as to absorb from 25 to 50 per cent of the freight rate receipts, and in certain instances more than the entire receipts were absorbed, resulting in a substantial cash loss to the roads.

WED EXPENSIVELY EARTH NOT MOLTEN

Extravagant Nuptial Feasts in Stock Yards District Cause Much Poverty.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Expensive weddings in families that could afford but a few of the necessities of life cause much poverty in the stock yards district of Chicago, according to a report issued today by investigators for the University of Chicago.

The investigators kept account of the earnings and expenditures of 184 families for one year. Eighty-eight of these families were Polish, 68 Lithuanians and 28 of mixed nationalities. Although the average yearly income of the 184 families was only $354.14, several of the poorer families celebrated elaborate weddings costing more than $200.

Of the 184 families observed, 180 used alcoholic liquors. The average expenditure per family for this item was $36.42, or 4.42 per cent of the total expenditures.

The report called attention to the case of "Clara Z," a young woman whose family spent $206.38 on a wedding for her. Of this expenditure the parents furnished $6.38 of their own money, $150 was borrowed from relatives and $50 was furnished by the bridegroom.

The wedding feast cost the family $97.63. It consisted of three dozen ducks, five dozen chickens, wedding cake, cakes and bread, fresh fruits, canned fruit, meat, candy and ice cream, milk and coffee, vegetables and sugar. "Clara Z's" personal expenses amounted to $94.75.

Police Graft Finds Way Into Germany

FRANKFURT - ON - THE - MAIN, Germany, March 28.—Commissioner Schmidt, head of the police department for the suppression of crime, announced today on charges of blackmail.

The investigation of charges that the "moral police" had been secretly receiving money for the protection of disorderly resorts has been in progress for months. Schmidt was implicated in the scandal by the testimony of a woman who revealed an extensive system of blackmail by the police.

Chicago Professor Says It's a Rigid Mass From Core to Surface.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Ancient and popular beliefs that the core of the earth is a molten mass have been investigated by scientists of the University of Chicago, who announced today that the planet is more rigid than steel, that it could not explode or be destroyed by a fire within itself.

The experiments were designed by Professor Albert A. Michelson, head of the department of physics, at the invitation of Prof. T. C. Chamberlin of the department of geology, and Prof. F. R. Moulton of the department of astronomy.

"The experiments," said Professor Michelson, "show that the interior of the earth is not a fiery mass, but resists the tidal forces of the moon about as it would if the earth were made of solid steel. Nevertheless the earth, in spite of its rigidity, behaves as an elastic body, not liquid, of course, but still subject to the same influences as are the oceans which form a part of it."

"That the solid surface of the earth is subject to the same ebb and flow as are the tides of the ocean although to a lesser extent is a statement that will astonish the average person who is prepared to assert with all the assurance of conviction that the earth is an immovable body. The fact that there are tides of about a foot in the surface of the earth has been demonstrated as a scientific fact."

ASTROLOGICAL. A Greek philosopher, some 500 years before the Christian era, advanced the theory that the interior of the earth was a molten, viscous mass. The theory was accepted by philosophers, astronomers and theologians with a following.

Aristotle, in his "Meteorology" held earthquakes were due to the generation of wind within the earth and internal heat. Rene Descartes conceived the earth as originally a glowing mass, cooled on the outside and still retaining an incandescent self-luminous nucleus. Leibnitz, Buffon, Guettard, Kant, Laplace and other modern philosophers have held the same view.

Oakland Party Has Narrow Auto Escape

Sharply rounding a curve in the Sacramento road, Ira P. Smith of this city and a party of guests, including

Miss Ruby Smith and C. A. Bishop, narrowly escaped death when their automobile, No. 1120, crashed into a nearly crashed into an opposite bank. The party were shaken up, but otherwise uninjured. Had the machine struck the bank all would, it is declared, have met death. The party was traveling from Oakland to Sacramento, where they are now visiting.

Thirty-five Houses

Fifty Lots

In the beautiful marine-view hillslope, Fourth-avenue Heights District, twenty-five houses have been started in the last month, or more than in any other district in Oakland. This is the place you should look at if you are hunting for a home. We own the largest and best variety of sites, with marine and canyon view, for sale at reasonable prices, on terms of 10 to 20 years. We can wait a month, no interest or taxes until January 1, 1915. This is one of the largest and finest residential developments in the city, with a million dollars worth of homes having been built in the last four years. One of Oakland's splendid new schools is in the section, and excellent car service by the Fourth-avenue line brings you to 13th and Broadway in fifteen minutes. Just the place for children, with beautiful views, wide Fourth-avenue car and get off at 13th and Everett avenues.

MONEY WANTED

A GOOD RESOLUTION.

Just this: Keep your funds (and don't ignore small amounts) safely and profitably invested in LOMBARD & SON, INC. FIRST FARM MORTGAGES.

When you have $20 or any larger amount on hand, needed at present, invest it in a 4-year note and have it earn 6%. When you have paid in 20 installments of $20 each you get a $400 certificate or 1-10th of a $4000 mortgage on property worth over $12,000.

If you have $100 you may pay for the certificate in one payment, or buy as many certificates as you desire, or you may purchase an entire first mortgage farm loan, $800 up to $10,000. You will be surprised at the resultant profit.

We shall be pleased to further explain these investments. LOMBARD & SON, INC., UNDERWOOD BLDG., SAN FRANCISCO.

COMPENSATION IS LIABILITY OFFSET

Report Reviews History of the Legislation and Presents Results.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Workmen's compensation laws are rapidly superseding employers' liability laws as a method of dealing with the results of industrial accidents, according to the Federal Bureau of Labor, in a report today on its investigations into the subject, both in the United States and foreign countries.

The report reviews in detail the history of such legislation and presents the actual results to beneficiaries under Federal and State laws. It shows that twenty-three States have enacted workmen's compensation laws and that these laws have been declared constitutional by the courts of last resort in Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Washington and Wisconsin. The law was declared invalid, however, in Montana because it permitted double liability and in New York because it was held to be in conflict with the State constitution. In New York, however, a new law was passed which avoided unconstitutionality.

The report says it is worthy of note that in the United States the liability system after having enacted a compensation law.

"While some desire is expressed in certain quarters to delay action until a uniform measure can be agreed upon," the report concludes, "it is apparent to the casual observer that the rapid movement of the last five years is likely to continue its program until the rule of proved negligence of the employer and the assumption by the employee of all risks not arising therefrom is superseded by the more humane and equitable doctrine of making the industry provide for the human no less than the mechanical breakage and wear and tear."

ARGENTINE TO GIVE SPLENDID EXHIBIT

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Julio Senillosa, Argentine architect, who will supervise the construction of the Argentina government's building at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, arrived today and consulted with Dr. Romulo S. Naon, Argentine Minister, who is desirous of having the exhibit from his country as complete as possible and worthy of the nation it will represent. Dr. Naon some time ago dedicated the site for the exhibit.

Senillosa bore a letter from Dr. Angel Gallardo, president of the commission arranging for the exhibit, stating that the exhibit would be very complete and will include the educational, agricultural, industrial, mining, forestry activities, and those of the various departments of government.

Construction of the building probably will begin in two weeks.

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY OF NEW ENGLAND MEETS

Dr. N. K. Foster presided over the social meeting of the California New England Association on Thursday evening with a genuine Irish shillelagh, in lieu of the usual sash which came from the old home of Daniel Webster. The songs and recitations were mostly of an Irish nature and particularly excellent was a whistling solo by Mrs. Gifford of a melody of Irish airs.

Harold B. Kling sang "Allan Allanna." Miss Mae Bandlin three finely rendered recitations. Miss Ellen Bandle sang very pleasingly a couple of Irish ballads and Miss Marie Wilson in songs was so often encored and was so generous with responses that her audience actually apologized for encroaching upon good nature.

Ice cream and cakes and coffee were substituted for the baked beans, corn bread and pies and altogether it was one of the most successful meetings held by the society.

FAIL TO BOOST FOR TRAFFIC ON HIGHWAY

RENO, Nev., March 28.—A large portion of the transcontinental auto traffic passing through Nevada is being diverted through Southern Nevada and Southern California, instead of passing over the route adopted for the Lincoln highway in Northern Nevada.

Northern Nevada and San Francisco are doing practically nothing to boost the national highway, and at Ely, in Eastern Nevada, a man is employed by Los Angeles to divert the traffic by boosting the southern route, and to point out the disadvantages of the "southern" route. The southern route is by way of Tonopah, Goldfield and through the Bishop creek country to Los Angeles.

BIG GOLD STRIKE REVIVES IDAHO CAMP

BOISE, Idaho, March 28.—The greatest gold strike in Idaho, for years has been made at Silver City in the Ruth mine, on War Eagle mountain, according to reliable advices that reached Boise yesterday. The ore is free milling impregnated with gold, showing assays from $600 to $5000 per ton. One piece of ore weighing nine pounds sent out for assay is said to have been half gold.

Silver City is the wildest revived camp in the West, and excitement there is intense.

The mine was discovered by John St. Clair and was named after his daughter Ruth. Recently it was taken over by Portland capitalists.

CANAL'S BENEFIT IS UNDER QUESTION

Railroad Men Talk Transportation and John Barrett Denies U. S. Inactivities.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 28.—Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and chairman of the President's committee of railroads in official classification territory, at the annual dinner of the Traffic Club of Pittsburgh, last night, argued for higher freight rates, and John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union sounded a note of warning in connection with the Panama canal. Present at the dinner were representatives of the railroad executives from New York, Chicago and other transportation centers.

Under existing conditions, it is now in effect in official classification territory do not yield sufficient revenues to properly meet the situation," Willard said.

ADDED TO PROPERTY.

"It has been shown to the Interstate Commerce Commission that 35 roads in official classification territory have added to their property investment since 1910 for additional facilities and equipment over $450,000,000, but as a result of operations in 1913, although the gross earnings were $192,771,000, greater than in 1910, the net earnings, after paying operating expenses and taxes were $16,311,000 less than in 1910, showing that not only had these companies failed to earn any return on the newly-invested capital, but they had $16,311,000 less net as returns upon previous investments. It is unnecessary to say that no business enterprise can continue on such a basis.

CHECK TO COMMERCE.

"It has been stated that the growing need of the country's commerce will require an additional expenditure by railroads for equipment and facilities of upwards of a billion dollars a year for some years. The only way in which such money can be obtained is through private enterprise and railroad investment must be made sufficiently attractive to secure new capital, else development will cease, and nothing can more effectively check the growth of commerce than insufficient transportation facilities.

"I do not think the necessity for increased revenues on the part of the carriers in official classification territory is seriously questioned by anyone at this time."

BARRETT TALKS

Discussing the "Panama Canal and Pan-American Commerce," Barrett said:

"The issue of the canal tolls, which is now engaging Washington and the country, is absolutely unimportant and secondary as far as actual trade conditions are concerned when compared to the importance of practical steps to use the canal for the upbuilding of the export and import traffic of the United States.

"While I cannot in any way, on account of my official position as an international officer, discuss the tolls question, I can tell you there is not a great exporting or importing center of Australia, Western Japan and of northern Europe, South America that is not doing more to get ready for the Panama canal than our corresponding ports and centers of the United States, with the possible exception of New Orleans and San Francisco.

"The investigations I have carried on convince me that unless the traffic interests of the United States wake up and make extraordinary efforts, the canal will prove a far greater advantage during the earlier years of its use to foreign lands than it will to the United States."

OFFICIALLY REPORTS ON LOCAL SCHOOL FINANCES

The official report on finances of the public schools, as prepared by Director Harriet B. Johnson, chairman of the finance committee, board of education, has been issued to the public. It was presented before the Oakland Center of the California Civic League yesterday and is open to inspection. The figures for the 1912-13 season are as follows:

Number of school days, 182 1/2; average daily attendance, 16,674; salaries paid for teaching, $602,387.80; average cost per pupil, based on the average daily attendance, $36.12; current expenses, exclusive of teachers' salaries, $127,612.74; cost per pupil, exclusive of teachers' salaries, $7.65; total current expense, $740,000.54; average cost per pupil, based on the average daily attendance, $44.38. This estimate is for the elementary schools. The high school expense runs as follows for 1912-13: Average daily attendance, 1483; number of school days, 186; salaries paid for teaching, $168,065.65; average cost per pupil, based on the average daily attendance, $73.51.

GOVERNOR FAVORS FIRE PREVENTION DAY

SACRAMENTO, March 28.—Governor Johnson has issued a proclamation commending to the people of California the observation of Saturday, April 18, as "Fire Prevention Day."

"The purpose is to bring about united effort on this occasion to minimize the dangers of fire," says Governor Johnson. "I wish to join in making appeal to all citizens to heed the emergency of the situation and to the fire prevention companies that have been organized in the rebuilding of San Francisco, plans have been made for a celebration on 'Fire Prevention Day' at the Exposition grounds in San Francisco. It is my earnest hope that adequate expression will be given at that time to the confidence and good will so splendidly earned by the companies that met their obligations honorably and courageously in the hour of overwhelming disaster."

VALUABLE PAINTINGS ARE STOLEN IN SPAIN

MADRID, March 28.—It is reported that three pictures of great value by El Greco have been stolen at Toledo.

In the Museo del Greco in Toledo, Spain, there are famous paintings by El Greco, including the famous "Penitent Peter."

MINNEAPOLIS, March 28.—John W. Callender, old-time river captain and pilot, and for several years James J. Hill's boss, died at his son's home here yesterday, aged 83. Hill was employed by him as a "mud clerk," the term then applied to freight clerk. Callender came to Minneapolis in the early fifties, driving a team of oxen from his home in Sheffield, Mass.

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If Tongue Is Coated, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, the stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

REDFIELD ADDRESSES PORTLAND JACKSON CLUB

PORTLAND, March 28.—With an address before the Jackson Club, Secretary McCommer W. C. Redfield last night brought to a close the first half of a program of activity arranged for his two days' stay here.

The gathering last night was composed largely of Democrats and the Secretary's address was in part political.

Earlier in the day Secretary Redfield had held a reception to federal officials at his hotel and made a short cruise on the United States Lighthouse tender Heather, in company with attaches of the Department of Commerce stationed here.

CANAL COMMISSION HOLDS LAST MEETING

PANAMA, March 28.—The last meeting of the Panama Canal Commission was held at Culebra yesterday. Only routine business was transacted and when the meeting adjourned it marked the passing of the historic body which had been connected with the construction of the canal from its commencement. The commission will be succeeded April 1 by the new civil government headed by Colonel George W. Goethals as governor.

At the end of the meeting Lieutenant Colonel William L. Sibert and Richard L. Metcalf, former head of the civil administration of the zone, said farewell to Colonel Goethals and Colonel Harry F. Hodges and Harry H. Rousseau, who remain with the new government.
